

A Skating We Will Go

Staffordshire Guisers' Play

CAPO 2

1. On a bleak and a cold frost - y morn - - ing, When
 2. See how the skates they are glanc - - ing! From the
 3. See how we glide to - - - geth - - er. So win - - ter in - cle - ment they were scorn - - ing, Thro' the right to the left they are danc - - ing. And no heed - less of wind or storm - - y weath - - er. In these spark - ling frost and snow, _ And a - skat - ing we will go, _ Thro' the dan - ger shall we feel _ With our feet on wings of steel. _ And no days of ice and snow, _ O, a skat - ing we will go, _ In these spark - ling frost and snow, _ And a - skat - ing we will go, Will you dan - ger shall we feel _ With our feet on wings of steel. Will you days of ice and snow, _ O, a skat - ing we will go, Will you fol - low? Will you fol - low? To the sound of the mer - ry, mer - ry horn!

Brune, C.S. "Guisers' Play, Songs, and Rhymes, from Staffordshire", Folk-lore Journal, 1886, pages 350-359, p.356.

Verse 3 by D. Vergin to replace wildly off-theme original verse. Chords: MJ