

This New Christmas Carol

Early 1800's or before

1. This new Christ - mas ca - rol Let us cheer - ful - ly
 2. Now the proud may come hi - ther And per - fect - ly
 3. As the shep - herds were feed - ing Of their flocks in the
 4. When the wise men dis - cov - ered The bright hea - ven - ly
 5. Let us learn of these sag - es, Who were wise, to o - sing, To the hon - our and glo - ry Of our hea - ven - ly see The most Ex - cel - lent pat - tern Of hu - mi - li - field, The sweet birth of our Sav - iour Un - to them was re - star, Then with gold and rich spic - es Straight they brought from a - -bey. Nay, we find through all a - ges They have hon - oured this King, Who was born of a vir - gin, Bless - ed Ma - ry by

 -ty; For in - stead of a cra - dle, Decked with or - na - ments
 -vealed By blest an - gels of glo - ry, Who those tid - ings did
 -far, In o - bed - ience to wor - ship With a hea - ven - ly day, Ev - er since this sweet ba - by's Blest na - ti - vi - name; For the poor and the might - y To the world here he came.

 gay, Here the great King of glo - ry In a man - ger he lay.
 bring, And di - rect - ed the shep - herds To their heav - en - ly King.
 mind, Know - ing that he was born To bless all hu - man - kind.
 -ty, Who was born in a man - ger To set us all free.

Oxford Book of Carols, p.58.

Compare: New Oxford Book of Carols, p.98