

A-Roving

D G D

1. In Am - ster - dam there lives a maid, Mark
 2. Her eyes are like two stars so bright, Mark
 3. Her cheeks are like the rose - buds red, Mark

G A7 G

you well what I say! In Am - ster - dam there you well what I say! Her eyes are like two you well what I say! Her cheeks are like the lives a maid, And she is mis - tress in her trade, I'll stars so bright, Her face is fair, her step is light, I'll rose - buds red, There's wealth of hair up - - on her head, I'll

D G A7 D G

D G D A7 D

go no more a - - roving from you fair maid. A -

G D G A7 D G

- roving, a roving, since roving's been my ru - - in, I'll

D G D A7 D

go no more a roving from you, fair maid.

D G D

4. I of - - ten take her for a walk, Mark
 5. I love this fair maid as my life, Mark
 6. And if you'll know this maid - en's name, Mark

G A7 G

you well what I say! I of - - ten take her you well what I say! I love this fair maid you well what I say! And if you'll know this

D G A7 D G

for a walk, And love to hear her mer - ry talk, I'll as my life, And soon she'll be my own true wife, I'll maid - en's name, Why soon like mine, 'twill be the same, I'll

D G D A7 D

go no more a - - roving from you fair maid. A -

G D G A7 D G

- roving, a roving, since roving's been my ru - - in, I'll

D G D A7 D

go no more a roving from you, fair maid.