

The Bold Pedlar and Robin Hood

Suxxex

Dm                      Am                      Dm

1. There    chanced to    be ___ a ___    ped - lar    bold,    A ___
 2. By        chance he    met ___ two ___    trouble - some    men,    Two ___

3. "O        ped - lar,    ped - lar,    what    is    thy    name?    Come ___
 4. "The     one    of    us ___ is    bold    Rob - in    Hood,    And the

Am                      Dm                      Am                      G7

ped - - lar    bold ___ there ___    chanced to ___ be:    He trouble - some    men ___ they ___    chanced to ___ be,    The speed - i - - ly ___ and ___    tell    to ___ me."    "Come, oth - - er    lit - - tle ___    John    so ___ free,"    "Now,"

Am                      Dm                      G7                      Am

put ___ his    pack    all ___    on    his ___ back,    And so one ___ of    them    was ___    bold    Rob - in    Hood,    And the by ___ my    name    I ___    ne'er    will ___ tell,    Till ___ says ___ the    pedlar,    "it ___    lays to    my good    will,    Wheth - er

Dm                      C                      Dm                      Am                      Dm

mer - ri - - ly    trudg - - ed    o'er ___    the    lea.
 oth - - er    was    little    John ___    so    free.

both ___ your    names    you have    told ___    to    me."
 my name    I    choose    to    tell ___    to    thee."

Dm                      Am                      Dm

5. I am Gam - - ble Gold ___ of the gay green wood, And ___
 6. "If you are Gamble Gold ___ of the gay green woods, And ___
 7. They sheathed their swords, _ with ___ friend - ly words, So ___

Am                      Dm                      Am                      G7

trav - elled far ___ be - - yond the ___ sea, An trav - elled far ___ be - - yond the ___ sea, You mer - - ri - - ly ___ they ___ did a - - gree, They

Am                      Dm                      G7                      Am

out - - law I am in my fath - er's ___ land, And ___ are ___ my moth - er's own sis - ter's ___ son, What ___ went ___ to a ta - - vern and there they ___ dined, And ___

Dm                      C                      Dm                      Am                      Dm

from ___ my coun - try was forced ___ to flee."
 near - - er cou - - sins can ___ we be?"
 crack - - ed bot - tles most mer - - ri - - ly.

English Traditional Songs, Lucy E Broadwood, 1908 (PDF), p.4
 Eight omitted verses describe a fight over the pedlar's pack.