

Turne Backe You Wanton Flyer

Thomas Champian (Philip Rosseter's A Booke of Ayres - 1601)

Dm Am Em

1. Turne back you wan - ton fly - - er, And an - - swer Yet bend a lit - - tle near - - er, True beau - - ty 2. What har - - vest half so sweet is As still to And straight to be re - cei - - ver, Of that which

Am Em Am

my de - - sire With mu - - tual greet - - ing, still shines clear - - er In clos - - er meet - - ing, reap the kiss - - es Grown ripe in sow - - ing, thou art giv - - er, Rich in be - - stow - - ing.

Em Am Dm A

Hearts with hearts de - light - ed Should strive to be u - - nit - - ed,
 There's no strict ob - serv - ing, Of times or sea - sons chang - ing,

Dm F Am Em Am

Ei - ther oth - ers arms with arms en - - chain - - ing,
 There is ev - er one fresh spring a - - bid - - ing,

Am Em F

Hearts with a thought, ro - - sy lips With a Then what we sow with our lips Let us

Am Dm Em Dm

kiss still en - - ter - - tain - - ing.
 reap loves gains di - - vid - - ing.