

When Thou Must Home

Philip Rosseter, A Booke of Ayres, 1601

Thomas Campian

CAPO 3

Gm(Em) Cm(Am) D(B7) F(D) Gm(Em) D(B7)

1. When thou must home to shades of un - der - ground,
The beau - tious spir - its do in - girt thee round,

2. Then wilt thou speak of ban - quet - ing de - lights,
Of turn - ies and great chal - leng - es of knights,

Bb(G) Eb(C) Am(F#m) D(B7) Am(F#m) Gm(Em) D(B7) G(E)

And there ar - - rived a new ad - - mir - ed guest,
White I - - o - - pe, blithe Hel - - en and the rest,

Of masks and rev - els which sweet youth did make,
And all these tri - umphs for thy beau - ty's sake,

C(A) D(B7) G(E) Bb(G) Dm(Bm) F(D) Bb(G)

To here the stor - ies of thy fin - ished love,
When thou hast told those hon - - ors done to thee,

Gm(Em) F(D) Cm(Am) Bb(G) Eb(C) Cm(Am) D(B7) Gm(Em)

From that ___ smooth tongue whose mus - ic hell can move.
Then tell, ___ O tell how thou didst mur - der me.