

Edi Beo Thu Hevene Quene

14th century

1. Bless - ed be ___ thou, heav - en - ly que - - ne,
 2. Thou doest rise ___ like day - - light new That
 3. Spring - eth blos - - som of on - e root, The Folk - - es com - fort and an - - gel's bliss,

 par - - tes from ___ the dark ___ of night;
 Ho - - li Gost ___ thee reste ___ up - - on;

Moth - er un - - tar - - nished and maid - en cle - - ne
 From ___ thee sprang ___ a lu - - men new That
 That ___ was for ___ us as the fruit, ___

such ___ in world ___ non oth - - er is.
 all ___ this world ___ hav - eth a light.
 For ___ our souls ___ such ease ___ up - - on.

On thee it _____ is wel - - eth sene of
 Not one maid _____ of thin - - e hue So Leye - - di mil - - de, soft _____ and sweet, I al - - le wim - men thou hav - - est the prize, My fair, so fine, _____ so ru - - di, so bright; _____

 cry thee mer - - ci, I am thy man, _____

swet - - e le - ye - di hear _____ my plea and Swet - - e le - ye - di, of me thou rue And Bothe to hand - - e and _____ to feet In rue _____ of me _____ if thy _____ will is.

 have _____ mer - - ci _____ of _____ thy knight.
 all _____ the ways _____ that _____ I can.