

All Jolly Fellows Who Follow the Plough

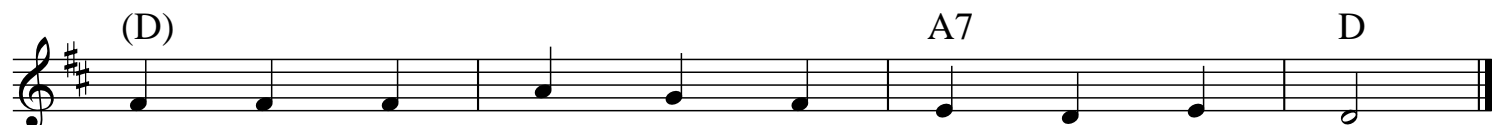

1. 'Twas ear - ly one morn at the break of the day, The
 2. At four in the morning, then up we do rise, And
 3. When five o' - clock comes at break - fast we meet, With
 4. When six o' - clock comes then out we do go, To cocks were a - - crow - ing, the farm - er did say, Come in - - to the sta - - ble, boys, mer - ri - - ly flies, With a - beef, pork, and bread, boys, so mer - ri - - ly eat, With a see which of us a straight fur - row could hold, In rise my good fel - - lows, a - - rise with good will, For your

 - rub - bing and a scrub - bing our hor - ses I'll vow We're piece in our pock - ets, I'll swear and I'll vow We're all kinds of weath - er I'll swear and I'll vow We're hor - - ses want some - thing their bel - - lies to fill.

 all jol - - ly fel - - lows who fol - - low the plough.
 all jol - - ly fel - - lows who fol - - low the plough.
 all jol - - ly fel - - lows who fol - - low the plough.

D A7 D

5. Our mas - ter came to us and this he did say, "What
 6. I turned my - self round and made this re - - ply, "Yes
 7. Our mas - ter turned round and laughed at the joke, "It's
 8. So come all ye plough lads, wher - e'er you may be, Nev -

(D) A7

have you been do - ing, boys, all this long day? You we've ploughed an ac - - re, you're tell - ing a lie, We half past two o' - clock, boys, it's time to un - yoke, Un -
 - ver fear your mas - ter, take this word from me, No,

(A7) D G D

haven't ploughed an ac - re, I'll swear and I'll vow, You're have ploughed an ac - re, I'll swear and I'll vow, We're
 - har - - ness your hor - ses and scrub them down well, And I'll never fear your mas - ter, I'll swear and I'll vow, We're all id - - le fel - - lows who fol - - low the plough.

(D) A7 D

 all jol - - ly fel - - lows who fol - - low the plough.
 give you a jug of the ver - - y best ale."
 all jol - - ly fel - - lows who fol - - low the plough.

LAST TIME ONLY

(D) A7 D

We're all jol - - ly fel - lows who fol - low the plough.