

Aze I the Silly Fish Beguile

Robert Jones (early 17th C.)

1. As I the sil - ly Fish de - ceive, So For - tune plays with me, Whose
 2. The Riv - er where - in I do swim, Of streams of hope is made, Where
 3. Thus tak - en like the en - vious one, Who glads for oth - ers care, Since baits my heart of joys be - reave And An - gels tak - eth me, joys as flow - ers dress the brim, And frowns do make my shade, he him - self must feel such moan, De - lights, all, so should fare,

I still do fish, I yet am I caught, and Whence smiles as sun - - - shine gives me heat, And
 And strive to make them know like smart, So ta - ken am, and ta - ken am, their _ ta - king taught.

 sha - dow frowns from show - ers beat, from _ show - ers beat.
 make I this to bear a - part, to _ bear a - - part.
