

The Bold Fisherman

(As I Walked Out...)

1. As I walked out ___ one May ___ morn - ing, down
 2. Good morning to you, _____ fish - - er - - man! How
 3. 'Twas then he rowed ___ his boat ___ to shore and
 4. Then he pulled off ___ his morn - - ing gown and 5. Then she fell on ___ her bend - - ed knees, Your 6. Rise up, rise up, ___ my la - - dy fair and 7. It pleased her well ___ to hear ___ such words. She 8. Then to my fa - - ther's house, _ he said, Where by a riv - - - er - - side, _____ 'Twas came you fish - - - ing here? _____ I'm tied it to _____ a stake, _____ And laid it on _____ the ground, _____ 'Twas par - - don, Sir! _____ she cried, _____ For down't down - daunt - - - ed be, _____ For of - - fered there _____ her hand. _____ I'd we will mar - - - ried be, _____ And there _____ I spied _____ a fish - - er - - man come fish - - ing for _____ my lad - - y fair all walked ___ up to _____ this la - - dy fair her then _____ she spied _____ three chains of gold all call - - ing you _____ a fish - - er - - man a - not _____ a word _____ that you have said the have _____ thee, be thou a fish - - er - - man, or you _____ shall have _____ your fish - - er - - man to row - - - ing down ___ the tide, ___ 'Twas down ___ the riv - - - er clear. ___ I'm li - - ly - white hand ___ to take. ___ And round ___ his neck ___ was bound. ___ 'Twas - row - - - ing on ___ the tide. ___ For least ___ of - - fend - - - ed me. ___ For lord ___ of all ___ this land. ___ I'd row ___ you on ___ the sea. ___ And there ___ I spied ___ a fish - - er - - man come

fish - - ing for ___ my lad - - y fair all

walked ___ up to ___ this la - - dy fair her
then ___ she spied ___ three chains of gold all
call - - ing you ___ a fish - - er - - man a -

not ___ a word ___ that you have said the
have ___ thee, be thou a fish - - er - - man, or
you ___ shall have ___ your fish - - er - - man to row - - ing down ___ the tide, ___ down ___ the riv - - er clear. ___

li - ly - white hand ___ to take. ___
round ___ his neck ___ was bound. ___
- row - - ing on ___ the tide. ___

least ___ of - - fend - - - ed me. ___ lord ___ of all ___ this land. ___ row ___ you on ___ the sea. _____