

North-Country Maid

Em D

1. A North Coun - try maid up to Lon - don had strayed, Al - -
 2. "While sad - ly I roam I la - ment my dear home, Where __
 3. "No doubt, did I please, I could mar - ry with ease, For where

Em B7

- though with her na - - ture it did not a - gree. She __ lads and young lass - - es are mak - ing the hay. The __ maid - ens are fair man - y lov - - ers will come, But __ wept and she sighed, and so bit - ter - ly she cried, "How I mer - ry bells ring and the birds so sweet - ly sing, The __ he whom I wed must be North __ Coun - try bred, And __

G D

Em B7 Em

wish once a - gain in the North I could be! Oh, the maid - ens and mead - ows are pleas - ant and gay. Oh, the car - - ry me back to my North Coun - try home. Oh, the oak and the ash, and the bon - ny i - vy tree, They __

G D

Em B7 Em

flour - - ish at home in my own coun - - try."