

Nothing At All

1. Oh! a song a - bout no - thing I'll sing, But a 2. Now a mis - er will lay up his store, And
 3. Now we all should a - void an - y strife which will 4. Now ___ fill up this glass to the brim, And ___ sto - ry of some - thing I'll tell I'll oft - en he gains an in - - crease, But he lead us to quar - rel and tease, And will let not one drop of it fall, And tell you what no - thing do mean, And how nev - er en - joys it him - - self, He knows har - ry our friends in this life, So you'd drink a good health and good cheer, That do oft - en times it do ex - - cel; ___ How neith - er the bless - ing or peace; ___ For bet - ter by far hold your peace; ___ For at sing a - bout no - thing at all; ___ And oft - - en we're put to a shift, How mon - ey brings trou - ble, you see, And length you will spend _____ your breath, And now to my com - rades I say, I'd oft - en we quar - rel and brawl, But if trou - ble brings sor - row with - - all, And _____ then you must sure - - ly fall, For have you the reck - on - ing call, For you've none of us are in the right, Then it's those that from sor - row be free, _____ Is when you are con - quered by death, _____ Then all got a shill - ing to pay, _____ For all a - - bout no - thing at all, And sing them that has no - thing at all. And sing you can say no - thing at all. And sing I have got no - thing at all. And sing
